- (iii). Review (maximum: 40 pages 90 references)

Manuscript Preparation

Title of paper

The title of the article should convey the topic of the research. Avoid words that add little to the meaningfulness of the article. E.g. “an empirical study of ...”, “A field study of ...” etc, such words make the title too lengthy

Names and address(es) of the Authors

The title page should contain the Title of the Article, Names of the author(s) and Contact address(es), mobile phone number(s) and e-mail address(es) of the corresponding author(s).

Abstract

The abstract should not exceed two hundred (200) words. Should be written in simple language, clear and concise and should contain the aim(s) of the study, methodology, main ideas of the discussion, research findings and conclusion. Abbreviations should be avoided and if used, should be explained at least once.

Keywords

A minimum of five (5) and maximum of six (6) keywords must be given at the end of the abstract.

Introduction

This should provide a general context for the work, explaining its significance and indicating why it should be of interest to scientist of other areas. Literature cited must be discussed to show the relationship between published work(s) and the research study.

Materials and Methods

Previously described methods should be cited and not elaborated upon. Details should be referred to literature cited. New approaches or methodologies should receive detailed attention. Statistical methods of treatment should be mention if used.

Results and Discussion

Results and Discussions should be combined. The original and important findings should be stated. Results should be illustrated with figures or tables where necessary but these should be kept to the minimum. The discussion should be highlight what is new in the research.

Conclusion

It should summarize the major findings that could be drawn, pointing out their significance and alluding possible future directions.

Acknowledgements

These should be presented at the end of the text and before the references. Technical assistance, financial assistance and advice may be acknowledged.

References

References should follow the current APA format.

Tables

Tables should be typed in separate sheet and numbers consecutively with Arabic numerals (e.g. Table 1, Table 2 etc). They have a short descriptive caption at the top.
